

Student Bulletin - 5th May 2026 - Week A

Ten Tors Training

Well done to all our Students from the Ten Tors training group for all your hard work and determination on getting through the weekend's Dress Rehearsal. I know you were suffering from sore feet and aching limbs, but you all achieved your goal of completing 35/45 miles, you should all be very proud of yourselves. Mrs Reeves

Jewellery Expectations Remain Unchanged

A maximum of two small stud earrings may be worn (not the hoop style).

- No facial or visible body jewellery is permitted.
- A clear plastic retainer may be used instead of a nose stud.

Where jewellery does not meet the above expectations:

- Items will be confiscated and taken to the school office.
- On the first occasion of confiscation, students may collect at the end of the day.
- For further or consecutive incidents, parents/carers will be required to collect the items.
- Any refusal to comply will be escalated in line with our behaviour procedures. This approach removes repeated warnings and ensures fairness and consistency for all students.

Book of the Week

Forged By Speed by Steve Peat

In a little over two and a half minutes on 6 September 2009 Steve Peat cemented his place in mountain biking history, becoming downhill world champion at the seventeenth time of asking and by a winning margin of just five hundredths of a second. But 'Peaty's' road to the coveted rainbow stripes began almost two decades earlier on the woodland trails of Northern England. Born and raised in Sheffield, he narrowly avoided going down the wrong track and instead chose to race cross-country mountain bikes before switching to the rapidly emerging discipline of downhill where he would compete alongside other young British racers including Rob Warner and the late, great, Jason McRoy. Since then, Steve has competed against the greatest riders of all time, including Nicolas Vouilloz, Shaun Palmer and Greg Minnaar, and his name has become synonymous around the world with downhill mountain biking.

In Forged by Speed, Steve shares his incredible story, from the Steel City to the top step of the world championship podium. Honest, compelling and funny, it is the autobiography of a British sporting legend.

Poem of the Week

Ozymandias by Percy Bysshe Shelley

I met a traveller from an antique land,
Who said—"Two vast and trunkless legs of stone
Stand in the desert. . . . Near them, on the sand,
Half sunk a shattered visage lies, whose frown,
And wrinkled lip, and sneer of cold command,
Tell that its sculptor well those passions read
Which yet survive, stamped on these lifeless things,
The hand that mocked them, and the heart that fed;
And on the pedestal, these words appear:
My name is Ozymandias, King of Kings;
Look on my Works, ye Mighty, and despair!"
Nothing beside remains. Round the decay
Of that colossal Wreck, boundless and bare
The lone and level sands stretch far away.

Gardening Club

Please meet at 3pm outside Mr West's office on a Monday for gardening club. Please bring some trainers or old shoes to change into and a coat if it is cold. See you there! Mr West
